

Benefits of choosing Compunnel Healthcare as your Staffing Partner

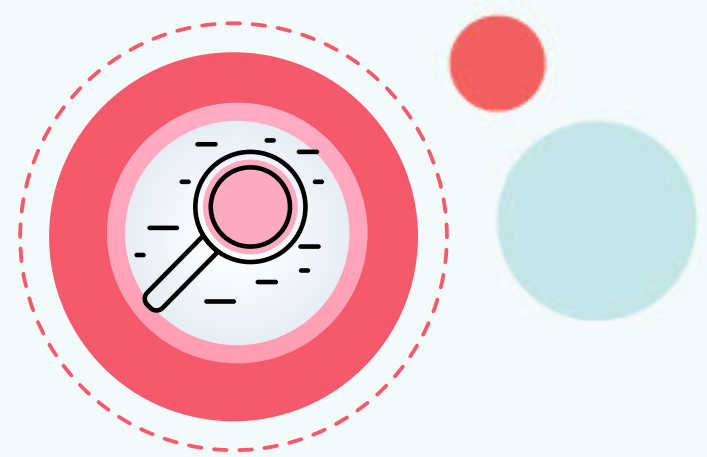

Saving Time

As a staffing agency, Compunnel Healthcare will do end-to-end recruiting for you, which includes - posting your job ads, reaching out to potential candidates, and making sure they are qualified for all your needs. We will also provide the screening, background checks, and E-verifications. You focus on your business, while we fuel the hiring process.

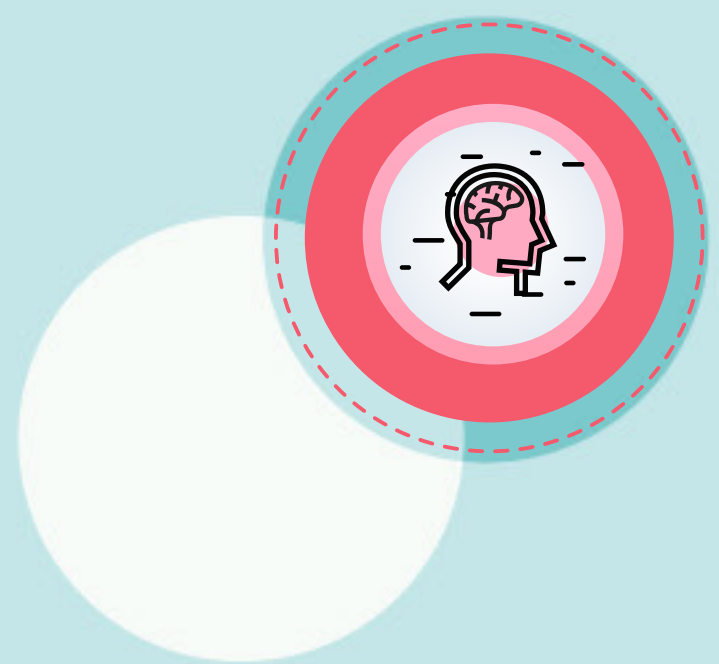

Placing Top Talent

After an extensive onboarding process, your company will have excellent candidates ready to join your team. You will get to hire a candidate who has the required skills, experience, education, and certifications/licenses you need!

Working with Experienced Professionals

Our company specializes in healthcare staffing; therefore, we have a vast pre-vetted talent pool that will fetch you the best of the best healthcare talent. Along with this, our recruitment managers have multiple years of healthcare recruitment experience, and our operating officer has four decades of experience.

Cutting down on Cost-Per-Hire

We will take care of your paid advertising, using our Indeed and Glassdoor accounts to post your job ads. Along with this, we also pay for employee wages, payroll taxes, and some applicable insurances.
